WHAT IS THE SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT ?

A good many people will be enquiring what is meant by the Special Correspondent; they will probably not have read the account which was given in the previous CRY, and to save misunderstanding we had better repeat two or three of the leading items connected with the anme

To begin with every hig newspaper has correspondents of its own. The newspapar has what is called the Ordinary Correspondents and Special Correspondents, the Special Correspondents being retained for their own paper exclnsively. Now, the WAR CRY is a hig newspaper and the time has some when we ought to have onr own Special Correspondents. We have facilities which no other newspaper can boast of. To begin with no other newspaper in Canada is favored with the number of separate agencies thronohout the Dominion which the Army has. Hence, therefore, the first step is prepared beforehand and all we have to do is to make use of existing machinery.

In the first place every corps should have a Special Correspondent. He will be responsible among other things to report regularly the most strik-ing event of the week at the

2. He will send a report of all local doings which will be of general interest to WAR CRY readers.

3. He will interview prominent soldiere and othere and get down from their lips some account of their lives for the CRV.

4 He will be relied upon to write np the history of the corps in conjunction with the Captain.

5 He will in many other ways be able to assist in connection with the CRY.

How would you like to be a Special Correspondent? We do not need in this place to speak of the honorable position which this necessarily entails, nor the value which in the course of time will come to be put upon the Special Correspondent. What is wanted at the moment is hearty response from some live folks who want to have a hand in doing something for the Lord and for the

THANKS.

SALVATION.

Tune—Auld Lang Syne e is a fountain filled with blood, wen from Immanual's value; sinuers plunge beneath that flood e all their guilty stains.

CHORTE ic believe, I will believe That Jesus died for me, set on the Cross He shed His blood From ein to set me free.

Thu dying this? rajoiced to see That fountain in his day; And there have I, though vile as he, Washed all my size sway.

Fire since by faith I saw the stream His flowing wounds supply, My Saviour's love has been my then And shall be till I die.

Then in a nobler, sweeter song, Fil sing His power to save, When this poor lisping, stammering t Lies silent in the grave.

Oh i escapa to yonder mountain; Heruge find in Him to-day; Christ invites you to the fountain, Come and wash your time away, not tarry, come to Jesus while you may.

Grace is flowing like a river, Millione there have been supplied; Still it flows as fresh as ever From the Saviour's wounded side, one need perish, all may live, for Christ has

Christ alone shall be our portion,
Soon we hope to meet above;
Then we'll bathe in the full coesa
Of the great Redeemer's love.
His fulness we shall then for ever prove.

Will you go, will you go, Go to that beautiful land with me Espensance is the station, then, Where passengers are taken in; No fee is there for them to pay, For Jessa is Himself the way,

In first and second and third-class Repentance, faith, and holiness— You must the way to glory gain, Or you with Christ can eaver reign

There is a better world, they say, Oh so bright! here sin and wee are done away, Oh, so bright! pright!
ad music fills the balmy air,
ad angels with bright wings are there harps of gold and manalons fair. Oh

And wicked things, and bessts of prey, com-not there! And ruthless death, and fierce decay, come no ind ruinness uccus, and there i there i There all are holy, all are good; But hearts unwashed in Jesus' bid And guilty sinners narenewed, come? And though we're sinners every one, Jesus died I ar crown of peace is gone, Jesus died!

We may be cleaned from every stain,
We may be crowned with bliss again,
And in that land of glory reign, Jesus died! Then parerts, sisters, brothers come, con away! We're bound to reach our Father's home, con a're bonne to resea ou.

Oh, come, the time is fleeting past,
And men, and things are fading fast,
ar time will surely come at last, come sway

Soldiers fighting round the cross.

Fight for your Lord;

Becken all things size but loss,

Fight for your Lord.

still I'm seved! O come and join our or quering band.
All hall! I'm saved! We'll conquer if we die.

Gird your sword and hell defy, Fight, etc. Onward charge and sever fig. Fight, etc. In the name of Christ, your Friend,

" Be thus faithful," hear Him cry; " In My service Sght and die."

See in heaven the rescued alayes, Rescue more while Jesus seven. faithfully your weapons yield— Stand your ground, and win the field. Fight your way to victory's abore, Tenth Birthday.

MOLINERS.

newersh the sange of the Own

Tie best to praise God with shouting and size.
Tie best to keep marching the Army slong.
For millions uneaved, in judgment and deth,
Will want to be saved all over.

O I stand all bewildered with wonder, And gaze on the ocean of love, And over 11 waves to my spirit, Comes peace, like a beavenly dove.

The Cross now covers my sic,
The past is under the blood,
I'm trusting in Jesus for all,
My will is the will of my God.

I struggled and wrestled to win it, The blessing that setteth me free; But when I had cessed from my strugg His peace Jesus gave auto me.

He laid His hand on me, and healed me, And bade me every whit whole. I touched the hem of His garment, And gicry came thrilling my soni.

The Prince of my peace is onw passing.
The light of Ele face is on ms;
But listen, beloved, He speaknth—
"My peace I will give unto thee."
